Photoshop Elements is a graphical design software with very straightforward user interface and file management. It is an image editing tool, but not a professional photo editing software; the graphics are, for the most part, rudimentary. You can play around and experiment, but at no point will you require a more complex image editor. What is Photoshop Elements used for? You can use Photoshop Elements to: Make your own graphics Take and edit photos Create greeting cards Create postcards Design logos Create graphics for flyers, brochures, and advertisements Easily create thumbnails for website graphics Create document templates Create photo books Create document templates Create website templates Create social media images Make photo collages Create collages Make fancy photos Make vintage-looking photos Make new Instagram photos Edit your photos Edit your videos Make flipbooks Use brushes Create and edit graphics Create amazing graphic designs Basic and intermediate Photoshop techniques Create a painting Make a sketch Create a painting Create a sketch Photoshop Elements features Graphics design software for beginners Photoshop Elements has all the essential features a beginner would need. Although it isn't a very strong program, it is one of the more useful and versatile programs out there. A beginner would probably use it to make simple graphics or to edit photos. It will do the job just fine, but its limited tools will leave you wanting for more powerful and advanced tools, like the ones in the professional version. A beginner will probably use Photoshop Elements for: Creating files and organizing them Working with the media library Eliminating lagginess in videos Adding text Working with effects Using filters Using Photoshop's brush tool Making graphics and adding text Working with layers Organizing your files Editing photos and videos Eliminating lagginess in videos Inserting text Adding text Working with effects Using Photoshop's brush tool Using filters Making graphics and adding text Using layers Organizing your files Editing photos and videos Eliminating lagginess in videos Inserting text Using Photoshop's brush tool 388ed7b0c7

FOUNDATION/PRIMARY STYLES FOUNDATION/PRIMARY STYLES With over 40% of the US population being overweight or obese, it is clear that the importance of healthy eating and lifestyle habits cannot be overstated. Unfortunately, as most of us know, a healthy lifestyle can be difficult to maintain. The good news is that well executed healthy eating and lifestyle habits are easy to establish and easy to sustain. You already know the importance of providing your children with a healthy diet and adequate exercise. But how do you best teach your children to eat right and live a healthy lifestyle? The American Heart Association recommends that parents give children age 4 and older 1 to 2 teaspoons of sugar for every 1000 kcal of energy that they eat per day. That's about 4 teaspoons of sugar for a child that is 89.4 cm tall (35 inches) and weighs 27 kg (60.8 lbs). Of course, your child's average daily calorie needs will be greater than 4 teaspoons of sugar per day, but the American Heart Association's recommendations are good guidelines for

Trinity What does Jesus tell us about church? The answer is church. The answer is community. The answer is fellowship. The answer is love. The answer is that we are created by God to be a family. The church - this one – doesn't just have a role in our lives, it is us. We live in the church. I am reminded of this when I hear things like, "I started a prayer ministry at my church" or "he is passionate about the church." There is a lot to be said for what the church means to people – but I want to be sure we understand the word church. Today's reading in the New Testament is one of the early pictures of Jesus on earth that are unique to Jesus' earthly ministry. The morning that Jesus was born, as the angel Gabriel announced he was the Son of God to Mary, Jesus is one of the first people we meet in the New Testament. This gives us a glimpse of how Jesus interacts with people. He is recognized as being from the Jewish community, because he grew up in the Jewish community. He comes and He saves people. He doesn't "just save" people – He makes people. The first few verses of this morning's reading give us some great, foundational verses to identify with the church. This is the church, you are one of those people who are making disciples. You are the ones who are willing to take Jesus' life, who are obedient in the midst of what you don't understand, who will sacrifice what it means to be a law abiding citizen, or who will call the state or one of the state's representatives to justice. You are disciples. This is who we are. This is who we are. This is who you are. This is why you are here. As disciples, this is what we do. One of my favorite verses in all the scripture is: "Jesus answered and said to them, "Truly, truly, I say to you, unless you eat the flesh of the Son of Man and drink his blood, you have no life in you. Whoever eats my flesh and drinks my blood has eternal life, and I will raise him up at the last day. For my flesh is food indeed, and my blood is drink indeed. He who eats my flesh and drinks my blood abides in me, and
