Malayalam Education in the United States - Past, Present and Future, by A Sreekumar. The conventional "Cultural Education" in the English Department, under the Anglo Saxon influence, is usually abbreviated as "C.E" or "Cultural Education" to mean English. Thus, the student to whom English is more of a second language learns the "Cultural" aspect of the language in this department and English is considered to be an easy subject and receives less time and attention than Mathematics, Science and Social Sciences. In the recent past, a good number of Malayalam medium schools have come up in cities all over the nation. These schools, despite their difficulty in building and starting up, have gained increasing number of students as their academic achievements also show increase. In 1980, a large number of Malayalam medium schools were started up all over the nation and large number of good students were admitted to these schools. But the sad part was that the majority of these schools were in the English medium. The following is the data of a private school, Annamalai Varma Central School, a premier Malayalam medium school of Kochi city, published by the School Management Committee. (*The data are for the period 1980-89) The primary English Medium School, The School Year : 1988-89 Total Students : 3275 Students Passing : 945 Students to be Scheduled : 2550 Students Passing : 2870 Students Not Scheduled : - Students Not Passing : - Students Attending the School : - Students Attending Classes : - Successful in NCC Examination : 6 Successful in the General Examination : 25 Graduating : - The primary Malayalam Medium School Total Students : 2555 Students Passing : 1050 Students to be Scheduled : 2295 Students Passing : 1480 Successful in NCC Examination : 1 Successful in the General Examination : 38 The High School The School Year : 1988- 82157476af
